

I think any measure to promote Do Not Call Lists will jeopardize a lot of jobs in the marketing industry. Granted I know there is a need to allow more privacy for citizens but it should not jeopardize the Freedom of Speech. When people get put on this list they should receive notification on individual stories of peoples lives they have destroyed for there privacy.